

Clare County 4-H Council
Minutes January 22,2025

Called to order at 6:06pm

Michelle Krell, Miranda Warmuskerken, Ashley Eberhart, Jane Krell, Nate Lewis, Molly Magnus, Corrie Aldrich, Lynette Sheldon, Katie Sheldon, Erika Schunk, Carter Smith, Jaylah Fischer, Krista McPhall, Tom Dewey, Melissa Muma, Cindy Dietsch, Jaylynn

Motion by Jaylah to support previous minutes and treasurer report, second by Jaylynn. Motion carries.

MSU Report: emails coming out with upcoming events; State 4-H rabbit show this weekend; 4-H day at Breslin Center is March 1st.

Craft Days: $205 was brought in at the Holiday Craft day

Gardening: a community garden is in the works.

Camps/Recreation: 4-H camp at the 4-H properties is coming

Ambassadors: we have a new ambassador- Zoey Gust

Milk Booth/Fundraiser: plant sale will need more involvement; possibly try a bake sale

Bank account signature switch just needs to get information from Krista and it will be done.

4-H Home Arts Auction Proposal: Michelle Neff is working on it.

Cloverbud Show Adjustment: fairboard wants a proposal put together and presented to them

Frostbite Fest: at the fairgrounds on February 8th, kids carnival is 12-3 in the foodstand

Clare Irish Fest: Country Neighbors will do the float; there is a charge per vehicle this year

Looking for ideas for other parades or events for 4-H to be involved in for promotion

4-H Higher Education Scholarship: any seniors that want to apply need to make the February council meeting if they haven't attended one yet; deadline is March 7th.

Debit card for council: 2 cards are allowed per 4-H entity. Erika motions to have Melissa follow the proper steps for 4-H Council to obtain and use a debit card, second by Jaylah. Motion carries.

2 clubs are disbanding this year, County Line Pioneers and Hicks and Chicks. If anyone wants to take them over please reach out to Miranda.

Request for new Ambassador shirts. Ambassadors will get a new shirt each year.

4-H Grows Here yard signs: looking into prices, will reach out next month.

Adjourned at 6:49pm