Situated on a quiet end of the wild and scenic Ocqueoc Lake, Ocqueoc Outdoor Center is perfect for group meetings, summer camps and recreational events. This rural Northern Michigan setting is rich in outdoor recreational opportunities, history and natural science. This makes a stay in the facilities relaxing, but also attractive for educational trainings in history, local ecology, and other natural sciences, as well as, writing retreats and sports camps. Learn and play all day, then celebrate evening with fishing, story-telling and a camp fire.
